I jumped on my bicycle and rode quickly towards the castle.
My heart was pounding hard because I was already late. Today, there was a festival close to the castle and my friends were waiting for me. The path was covered in mud after the rain which made my bicycle slid once. I kept going. When I finally arrived at the castle, everyone was very excited. We had snacks, played games and watched the dusk together from the castle wall. It was a day but it turned into one of my favorite memories because I was, with my best friends.

100 words entered (the word count for this task is about 100 words). You have written enough.
